Located northwest of Toronto, in Peel Region, the city of Brampton has all of the features of a big city—public transit, access to cultural activities, libraries, community centres, and sports complexes, proximity to Pearson International Airport, etc. It also offers ready access to Canada's great outdoors. École Jeunes sans frontière opened in 2007 in the heart of Peel Region and now has close to 550 students. Its mission is to offer all students an enriched learning environment. It stands out for the quality of its teaching staff and for its students' academic performance.
